Message by Parish Priest

My dear Friends!

Today we celebrate the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. It is also celebrated as a day of Consecrated Life. I take this opportunity to wish all the Religious of our Parish a happy Feast. It is time to appreciate the wonderful work the religious do the Church and Society.

Last year on the 2nd February our Pope Francis reflected on the day's Gospel (Lk 2:22-40), in which Jesus is presented in the Temple 40 days after his birth. The Holy Father said the Liturgy shows "Jesus who goes out to meet his people", calling it the feast day of encounter. "The newness of the Child encounters the tradition of the Temple; the promise finds fulfillment; young Mary and Joseph encounter the elderly Simeon and Anna." Consecrated women and men, said Pope Francis, are called to encounter Jesus "every day of our lives... it is a daily choice." "What happened in the Temple also happens to us: around him everything meets, and life becomes harmonious." He said religious find in Jesus the courage to carry on, because "the encounter with the Lord is the source."

The Pope said encounter with Jesus takes place within the people of God and within a religious community. "God calls us to encounter him through faithfulness to concrete things: daily prayer, Holy Mass, Confession, real charity, the daily word of God."

Finally, Pope Francis summed up religious life as not being about survival but about new life, calling it "a living encounter with the Lord." "This then is the consecrated life: praise which gives joy to God's people, prophetic vision that reveals what counts."

Let us pray today for all the Religious as we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. May they encounter Jesus everyday and may they be able to bear witness to the fact that Jesus is the Source of Salvation.

REFLECTION

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs forty days after the birth of Jesus and is also known as Candlemas day, since the blessing and procession of candles is included in today's liturgy.

In today's Gospel we experience Mary and Joseph presenting the infant Jesus, the son of God, in the Temple. On this day the Son of God is offered to His Father. This offering is beautifully represented with lighted candles to remind us of when Mary entered the Temple carrying in her arms her Son, who is Light of the world. Today when Christians carry lighted candles in their hands it is to testify that if it were possible they would carry Our Lord in their arms as did Mary and Simeon.

The glorious St. Simeon was very happy to carry the Savior in his arms. We can bear Him on our shoulders if we willingly endure and suffer with a good heart all that it pleases God to send us, however difficult and heavy be the charge and burden that God places upon our shoulder, like some saints.

We can carry Our Savior in our arms as St. Simeon and Mary did. We do this when we endure with love the labours and pains He sends us, that is to say, when the love that we bear makes us find God's yoke easy and pleasing, so that we love these pains and labours, gather sweetness in the midst of bitterness. If we carry Him this way, He will, without doubt, Himself carry us.

Oh, how happy we shall be if we allow ourselves to be carried by this dear Lord, and if we carry Him on our shoulders and in our arms, abandoning ourselves entirely to Him and letting Him lead us where He pleases! Leave yourselves, then, in the arms of His Divine Providence, submitting yourselves in what concerns His Law and disposing yourselves to endure all the pains and suffering that may come to you in this life. When you have done this you will find that the hardest and most painful things will be rendered sweet and agreeable to you, and you will share the happiness experienced by St. Simeon and Anna, the prophetess. Try only to imitate them in this life and you will bless the Saviour and be blessed by Him in Heaven, together with these glorious saints.

Prayer for the Diamond Jubilee Year of the Archdiocese

O God of eternal love and compassion, we thank you for the gift of the Archdiocese of Delhi.

As we celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the Archdiocese, grant us a fresh outpouring of your Spirit, so that learning from the self-giving love of Christ on the Cross, we might become a Church that makes GIVING of herself to others her joyful vocation. Alive to the needs of others, may we share the Good News of faith, hope, love, joy and justice with all peoples.

With the Jubilee motto, "Love is our norm, and service our lifestyle", we look towards the most Sacred Heart of Jesus to help us make this Jubilee year a time of renewal, where our Parishes and Institutions become signs of God's Kingdom and beacons of God's saving to all.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like unto thine.

Mary our Mother, intercede for us as we pray...
