Message by Parish Priest

Dear Friends

The feast and its objectives: All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. All Saints Day is intended to honor the memory of countless unknown and uncanonized saints who have no feast days. Today we thank God for giving ordinary men and women a share in His holiness and Heavenly glory as a reward for their Faith. This feast is observed to teach us to honor the saints, both by imitating their lives and by seeking their intercession for us before Christ, the only mediator between God and man (1 Tm 2:5). The Church reminds us today that God's call for holiness is universal, that all of us are called to live in His love and to make His love real in the lives of those around us. Holiness is related to the word wholesomeness. We grow in holiness when we live wholesome lives of integrity, truth, justice, charity, mercy, and compassion, sharing our blessings with others.

Reasons why we honor the saints: 1- The saints put their trust in Christ and lived heroic lives of Faith. St. Paul asks us to serve and honor such noble souls. In his Epistles to the Corinthians, to Philip and to Timothy, he advises Christians to welcome, serve and honor those who have put their trust in Jesus. The saints enjoy Heavenly bliss as a reward for their Faith in Jesus. Hence, they deserve our veneration of them. 2- The saints are our role models. They teach us by their lives that Christ's holy life of love, mercy and unconditional forgiveness can, with the grace of God.

Walking on the path of compassion we can be the messenger of God to anyone. Today we are going through things that our generation has never experienced. Everything has halted. The speed in which we were moving has been suddenly stopped. Old things are replaced with new trends. A total change everywhere.

In this trying times to be a messenger of God, we have to have a lot of compassion. This is what we read in the life of saints. They were ordinary men and women. But, whoever came into contact with them had the experience of God in their presence, their words and their actions. Today we need many more saints to pass on the compassion of God to a suffering world. And that mission is on us. To be messengers of God we should go ahead and do whatever little bit we can and let everybody experience God through us.

Happy Feast to all. May we become the messengers of God in our own situations.

REFLECTION

All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. The saints enjoy heavenly bliss as a reward for their faith in Jesus. Hence, they deserve our veneration. 2-The saints are our role models. They teach us by their lives that Christ's holy life of love, mercy, and unconditional forgiveness can be lived by ordinary people, of all walks of life and at all.

3- The saints are our heavenly mediators who intercede for us before Jesus, the only mediator between God and us. (James: 5/16-18, Exodus: 32/13, Jer. 15:1, Revel. 8:3-4,)

4- The saints are the instruments that God uses to work miracles at present, just as He used the rod of Moses (Exodus), the bones of the dead (II Kings 13/21), the towel of Paul (Acts 19:12) and the shadow of Peter (Acts 5:15) to work miracles.

So to become a Saint we can practice the guidelines given by three Teresas: 1- St. Teresa of Avila: Recharge your spiritual batteries every day by prayer, namely, listening to God and talking to Him. 2- St. Teresa of Lisieux: Convert every action into prayer by offering it to the glory of God and salvation of souls and by doing God's will to the best of one's ability. 3- Saint Mother Teresa: Do ordinary things with great love.
