Message by Parish Priest

My dear Friends,

The Month of October is a very special month for the Church. We celebrate this a Month of Mother Mary. And this year Pope Francis has declared October 2019 as the Extraordinary Month of Mission. While inaugurating the Extraordinary Month of Mission, Pope Francis recalled the examples of three persons. St. Therese of Child Jesus, St. Francis and Venerable Pauline Jaricot. St. Therese and St. Francis Xavier are the patron Saints of the missions. St. Therese, a Carmelite Cloister, made prayer the fuel of the missionary activity in the world. "St. Francis Xavier," said the Pope, "the greatest missionary of all time, after St. Paul." "Together with the venerable Pauline Jaricot, a French lay woman, who helped create the foundations of the Pontifical Missionary Societies, they give us a 'jolt' said the Pope. They challenge us to emerge from our shell and renounce our comforts for the sake of the Gospel." The Pope invites every Christian, "to make our talents bear fruit with boldness and creativity." The Extraordinary month of Mission should jolt us and motivate us to be active in doing good. Not to be notaries of faith and guardian of grace but missionaries." To be a missionary is to be a witness. He says that we commit sin against mission when we become slave to the fears that immobilise us.

In this month, said the Pope, the Lord is also calling you, fathers and mothers of the families, young people..... the Lord is asking you to be a gift where ever you are, and just as you are, with everyone around you." The Lord is asking you, "not simply to go through life, but to give life, not to complain about life, but to share in the tears of all who suffer.

May this month of October help us, with Mary Our Mother at our side, to be truly the missionaries the Lord wants us to be. To be fruit bearing witnesses of the Lord like St. Therese and St. Francis Xavier and Venerable Pauline Jaricot.

(((SUNDAY READINGS & REFLECTION)))

1st Reading: Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

In a vision Prophet Habakkuk cries out to God for help, and God responds by asking him to write it down. That the righteous shall live by his/her faith is a famous saying of Habakkuk.

Response Ps: 95

O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

2nd Reading: Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

St. Paul advises Timothy to stir up into flame the gift of God that he has received through the laying on of hands. Paul, the pastor, turns theologian when he says that God does not give us a spirit of timidity but of power.

Gospel: Luke 17:5-10

When the disciples ask for an increase of faith, Jesus refers to the Sycamore tree and says that if they with faith say to the tree to be uprooted and replanted in the sea it will obey them. Genuine faith can do unexpected things.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Lord, grant us the gift of faith.

पहला पाठ: हबक्कूक ग्रंथ 1:2-3; 2:2-4

“जो दुष्ट है वह नष्ट हो जायेगा जो धर्मी है वह अपनी ईमानदारी के कारण सुरक्षित रहेगा।”

अनुवाक्य: स्तोत्र 94

“ओह! यदि तुम आज उसकी यह वाणी सुनो, अपनं हृदय कठोर न बनाओ।”

दूसरा पाठ: तिमथी के नाम पत्र 1:6-8, 13-14

संत पौलुस अपने अनुयायी तिमथी से अनुरोध करते हैं कि वह अत्याचार से विचलित न हों; बल्कि येशु मसीह के विश्वास में दृढ़ बने रहें।

सुसमाचार: संत लूकस 17:5-10

येशु पर अटल विश्वास रखकर तथा विनम्र भाव से उनके आदेशों का पालन करके ही हम उनके सच्चे सन्देशवाहक बन सकते हैं।

विश्वासियों के निवेदन

हे पिता, हमारी प्रार्थना सुन।

REFLECTION

Lord, increase our faith

In today's gospel, the apostles of Jesus have a simple yet profound request; 'Lord, increase our faith.' It seems that their faith has been tested and found to be weaker than they believed. And so, with courage and humility they ask Jesus to increase and strengthen their faith. In response Jesus tells them that if their faith was as small as even a mustard seed, they would be able to uproot and move trees with a simple command!

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus also speaks about the mustard seed. He says again that is the smallest of seeds, but when it is planted, it grows into the largest and most lush of all trees. This is true. The mustard seed is tiny, but when it grows and matures it is one of the biggest trees. What is Jesus saying to us today when he compares faith to this seemingly insignificant seed? Faith is a gift given to us by God, but it is given to us as a tiny seed, just like a mustard seed. It is sown and planted deep within us through the love of God and the grace of baptism. Like any small seed that is sown, even in a flower pot, it won't grow, and blossom unless it is cared for. It needs to be nourished and nurtured. It won't grow or develop by itself or if it is ignored and left alone – it may even die altogether.

Each of us have been given the most precious gift of faith. It is up to each of us to protect this gift – it is very fragile. It is our responsibility to nourish and nurture this seed of faith. How do we do this? We can help our faith to grow through living and leading a good ordinary daily life; through regular prayer and by celebrating the sacraments with others, especially the Eucharist.

And of course, we can repeat the request of the disciples, “Lord, increase our faith.”
