Message by Parish Priest

My dear friends!

Today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord ends the Christmas season and invites us to think of our Baptism. Jesus willed to receive the baptism preached and administered by John the Baptist in the river Jordan. It was a baptism of penance: all those who approached it expressed the desire to be purified from sin and, with God's help, committed themselves to begin a new life.

We understand then the great humility of Jesus, He who had not sinned, put himself in the queue with the penitents, mixing among them, to be baptized in the waters of the river. What humility Jesus has! And, by doing so, He manifested what we celebrated at Christmas: Jesus' willingness to immerse Himself in the river of humanity, to take upon himself the failures and weaknesses of men, to share their desire of liberation and to overcome all that distances one from God and renders brothers strangers. As at Bethlehem, along the banks of the Jordan God keeps His promise to take charge of the human being's fate, and Jesus is the tangible and definitive sign of it. He took charge of all of us, He takes charge of all of us, in life, in the days.

The feast of Jesus' Baptism invites every Christian to remember his own Baptism. I can't ask you the question if you remember the day of your Baptism, because the majority of you were babies, like me; we were baptized as babies. However, I can ask you another question? Do you know the date on which you were baptized? Do you know what day you were baptized? Each one of you think about it. And if you don't know the date or have forgotten it, when you go home ask your mother, your grandmother, your uncle, your aunt, your grandfather, your godfather, your godmother: what was date? And we must always have that date in our memory, because it's a date of celebration, it's the date of our initial sanctification; it's the date in which the Father gave us the Holy Spirit who pushes us to walk; it's the date of the great forgiveness. Don't forget: what's the date of my Baptism?

This feast invites us especially to value and celebrate the baptism that we have received.

(((SUNDAY READINGS & REFLECTION)))

1st Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7

In this song of the servant, Isaiah describes the servant as one neither breaks the bruised reed nor quenches the smouldering wick.

Response Ps: 28

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

2nd Reading: Acts 10:34-38

The speech by Peter is the classic proclamation of the gospel to the Gentiles.

Gospel : Matthew 3:13-17

Jesus submits himself to the baptism of John. Heaven opens, the Spirit descends upon him in the form of a dove.

Prayers of the Faithful:

Lord, strengthen our faith.

पहला पाठ: इसायास ग्रंथ 42:1-4,6-7

नबी इसायास ईश्वर के सेवक के विषय में भविष्यवाणी करते हैं कि वह पृथ्वी पर धार्मिकता की सीपना करेगा और लोगों को ज्यादा प्रदान करेगा। वह सेवक मसीह हैं।

अनुवाक्य: स्तोत्र 28

प्रभु अपनी प्रजा को शांति की आशिष प्रदान करेगा।

दूसरा पाठ: प्रेरित - चरित 10:34-38

संत पेट्रुस इस पर बल देते हैं कि जो कोई धर्माचीण करता है वह ईश्वर का कृपा-पात्र बन जाता है। मसीह सही संदेश देने आये और अपने कार्य द्वारा उन्होंने प्रमाणित किया कि ईश्वर उनके साथ था।

सुसमाचार: संत मती 3:13-17

येसु पापी मनुष्यजाति का सदस्य बन गये। इसलिए निष्पाप होते हुए भी वह योहान से बपतिस्मा ग्रहण करते हैं। बपतिस्मा संस्कार के द्वारा मनुष्य पापमुक्त हो कर ईश्वर की सन्तान बन जाते हैं।

विश्वासियों के निवेदन

हे पिता, हमारी प्रार्थना सुन।

REFLECTION

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Baptism of Our Lord. This brings to an end the season of Christmas. The Church recalls Our Lord's second manifestation or epiphany which occurred on the occasion of His baptism in the Jordan. Jesus descended into the River to sanctify its waters and to give them the power to beget sons of God. The event takes on the importance of a second creation in which the entire Trinity intervenes.

In the Eastern Church this feast is called Theophany because at the baptism of Christ in the River Jordan God appeared in three persons. The baptism of John was a sort of sacramental preparatory for the Baptism of Christ. It moved men to sentiments of repentance and induced them to confess their sins. Christ did not need the baptism of John. Although He appeared in the "substance of our flesh" and was recognized "outwardly like unto ourselves", He was absolutely sinless and impeccable. He conferred upon the water the power of the true Baptism which would remove all the sins of the world: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Who takes away the sin of the world".

Many of the incidents which accompanied Christ's baptism are symbolical of what happened at our Baptism. At Christ's baptism the Holy Spirit descended upon Him; at our Baptism the Trinity took its abode in our soul. At His baptism Christ was proclaimed the "Beloved Son" of the Father; at our Baptism we become the adopted sons of God. At Christ's baptism the heavens were opened; at our Baptism heaven was opened to us. At His baptism Jesus prayed; after our Baptism we must pray to avoid actual sin.

Prayer for the Diamond Jubilee Year of the Archdiocese

O God of eternal love and compassion, we thank you for the gift of the Archdiocese of Delhi.

As we celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the Archdiocese, grant us a fresh outpouring of your Spirit, so that learning from the self-giving love of Christ on the Cross, we might become a Church that makes GIVING of herself to others her joyful vocation. Alive to the needs of others, may we share the Good News of faith, hope, love, joy and justice with all peoples.

With the Jubilee motto, "Love is our norm, and service our lifestyle", we look towards the most Sacred Heart of Jesus to help us make this

Jubilee year a time of renewal, where our Parishes and Institutions become signs of God's Kingdom and beacons of God's saving to all.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen. O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, make our hearts like unto thine.

Mary our Mother, intercede for us as we pray...
